

Recommencement of Public Masses in the Parish of Hannahstown

It is with great joy that the Parish Council and I are in a position to recommence the celebration of Public Masses in our Parish. We are confident that our Churches are safe places for all of us to gather.

The celebration of public Mass will begin on:

Monday 6th July @ 9.15am in St. Joseph's Church, Hannahstown.

The Mass times for the rest of the week are:

Tuesday 7th & Thursday 9th July @ 9.15am in St. Peter's Church, The Rock

Wednesday 8th & Friday 10th July @ 9.15am in St. Joseph's Church, Hannahstown

The Sunday Masses are at the usual times:

Saturday (Vigil) Mass 11th July @ 6pm in St. Joseph's Church, Hannahstown

Sunday 12th July @ 10am in St. Peter's Church, The Rock

Sunday 12th July @ 11.30am in St. Joseph's Church, Hannahstown

Stewards will be in attendance at all Masses. The stewards will assist you with the following:

- Direct you to your seat when you enter the Church;
- Invite you to leave your seat to join the procession for Holy Communion/Blessing;
- Invite you to leave your seat to exit the Church when Mass is finished.

Please follow the guidance offered by the stewards as this will ensure that we observe the social distancing regulations and keep one another safe in Church.

There is no obligation to attend Sunday Mass at this particular time. At all times please follow the guidance issued by the Public Health Agency.

I look forward to welcoming all our parishioners back to Mass in the coming days/weeks.

Fr. Kevin.
